

Slovak-Kenyan Cooperation

Project named Slovak-Kenyan Cooperation for Modern Schools is targeting four schools in Voi District with an aim to provide digital technology, training of teachers, study exchange trips of teachers and starting a project-based learning where students help local communities utilizing their newly attained ICT skills. Detailed information about the project can be found at nadaciapontis.sk. The project is being financed by the official development aid programme of the Slovak Republic - SlovakAid.

Video embed:

Source URL: <https://www.slovakaid.sk/en/video/192-slovak-kenyan-cooperation>